

Mota Italic End User License Agreement (EULA) for Web Fonts

Version 3.0 June 2016

¶ Please read this Agreement carefully before purchasing, downloading, and/or installing any Mota Italic Fonts. Included herein are all rights including acceptable use and limitations regarding these Fonts.

¶ By downloading and/or installing Mota Italic products (“Fonts” and “Web Fonts”), you accept the terms and conditions of this End User License Agreement (“EULA”). This Agreement is a binding legal contract between you the User and Mota Italic.

¶ If you have any questions or needs not covered by this Agreement, please contact Mota Italic before making your purchase, downloading, and/or installing the Fonts.

1) Definition of terms

¶ “Fonts/Web Fonts” refer to the digital products including the design, code, and trademarks.

¶ “Domain” refers to the website where the Web Fonts will be rendered. One Domain means one DNS record or IP address. Subdomains under the main Domain shall be considered a part of the licensed Domain.

2) Grant of License

2.1) Installation and Use

¶ Mota Italic hereby grants you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to install and use the licensed Fonts for the number of Domains specified on your invoice.

¶ The Web Fonts may be (are intended to be) uploaded to the server hosting the licensed Domain’s contents.

¶ The Web Font License information provided by Mota Italic along with your order must be copied into your CSS file containing the licensed fonts and “@font-face” declaration(s).

3) Font Usage

3.1) Allowed

¶ The Web Fonts are intended to be solely used in Cascading Style Sheets (CSS) employing the “@font-face” tag.

3.2) Not Allowed

3.2.1) Desktop Use

¶ The use of Mota Italic Web Fonts offline or outside the a web browser is strictly prohibited. This expressly refers to installing or using the Fonts in a computer’s operating system or in applications. The fonts may not be used for work created to be printed.

3.2.2) Fonts in Commercial Products

¶ The Web Fonts may not be used to generate commercial products – either digital or analog (e.g., but not limited to: e-cards, electronic books, goods for sale, alphabet products such as for scrapbooking, embedding in software, games, or gaming devices – irrespective of whether the vectorized Fonts themselves are embedded or if image files of the Font’s glyphs are displayed). Embedding or using the Fonts in commercial products shall be governed by a separate License Agreement.

¶ The Web Fonts may however be still used on commercial websites to display the site’s content (e.g. sites with paywalls or memberships).

3.3) All Other Embedding

¶ Embedding of the Fonts in other software or devices not explicitly stated here shall be governed by a separate License Agreement. Additional license fees may also apply depending on the embedding needs. Please ask if you have questions.

4) Modifications

¶ Mota Italic Web Fonts’ outlines, metrics, or Font info may not be modified, but the glyph/character set may be subset, and a new file created. There may be instances when your website requires less characters, so the unnecessary ones may be removed. Mota Italic grants no warrantee to converted files. All copyright, trademark, and license info must remain in and along side modified fonts.

4.1) Allowed File Formats

¶ Web Fonts are supplied in Embedded OpenType (.EOT) and Web Open Font Format (.WOFF and .WOFF2). Subset fonts may only be recompiled into .EOT, .WOFF, & .WOFF2 formats.

4.2) Not Allowed File Formats

¶ Web Fonts may not be converted or recompiled to any other format other than expressly listed in §5.1. This includes OpenType (.OTF and .TTF) files.

¶ You may however transfer the use of the Web Fonts from one Domain to another, provided you discontinue use of the Fonts on the previous Domain. You are licensing the Web Fonts for a number of Domains, not for specific Domains, so you may change the Domain that they are used on anytime, as long as you are not exceeding the simultaneous number of Domains you have licenses for.
